

Business Intelligence Manager (m/f)

Tax declarations are complicated, time consuming and no one really understands them. We are on a mission to change that: With specialised tax tools (e.g. for students, retirees, soldiers) and a modern UX, we are rethinking the whole tax industry. We are currently looking for a motivated Head of Design to join us on this mission. This is a full time role, based in our cosy loft in the middle of Berlin, Kreuzberg.

Your tasks will be:

- Develop our databases and BI-solutions as well as conceptualize and implement all relevant tools
- Create predictive models and identify patterns in complex datasets to articulate user behavior, customer journeys and segmentation and to define improvement opportunities
- Lead the strategic development of our business intelligence solutions in close cooperation with other departments (IT, Marketing, Controlling or Product)
- Establish high performance business processes based on data and insights and provide reports, dashboards, KPIs and its connections
- Advise our Management Team on critical strategic and operational decision making based on data analysis
- Communicate the results and recommend analytical forecasts

Who are we looking for?

- University degree in informatics, economics or similar; relevant studies within a technical field are a big plus
- 2 years of experience as a Business Analyst and you enjoy working independently and having lots of responsibility as well as an entrepreneurial mindset
- You use a hands-on approach for problem solving and you are highly ambitious and you have critical/analytical thinking as well as communication skills
- You have solid Excel knowledge (Power Pivots, Integration of data from outside sources, Basic Data Analysis)
- You have a business or technical educational background and it is easy for you to prioritize activities
- You are fluent in German and English

Why work with us?

- You can expect a cool office located in Berlin, Kreuzberg
- No day is like the other - we offer you exciting and varied tasks in an fast-paced international work environment
- Flat hierarchies and quick decisions
- Regular team lunches & events
- The best regular office party in town

Apply now! We are looking forward to get your application including your CV, your salary expectations and your starting date at jobs@wundertax.de. We promise you, we reply fast.
